

Sample Formal Assessment Post-Visit Activity Form Grades K–2

|                           | Excellent   | Doing Well  | Needs Practice   |
|---------------------------|---|---|--|
| Create a Model of a City  | Student drew a four-block model of a city that included at least one example of each of the following: living spaces, green spaces, workspaces, and community spaces. Spaces were drawn in the appropriate color zones. | Student drew a four-block model of a city that included at least one of the following: living spaces, green spaces, workspaces, and community spaces. Spaces were not drawn in the appropriate color zones. | Student did not draw a model. Or student's model did not have at least one example of each of the types of spaces.                 |
| Meeting Community Needs   | Student explained either orally or in writing three or more ways that their city design met the needs of the people living there.   | Student explained either orally or in writing at least two examples of how their city design met the needs of the people living there.  | Student explained either orally or in writing one or no example of how their city design met the needs of the people living there. |
| Explaining Design Choices | Student described either orally or in writing at least three things in their design and was able to explain two design choices that they made.  | Student described either orally or in writing two things in their design and was able to explain at least one design choice that they made.   | Student was able to describe either orally or in writing at least one thing they included in their design.                         |

